A stamp collection valued at $2,500 was stolen Friday night from the home of John R. Bowen, as, of 248 Avenida Atezada. Burglars apparently broke in through a kitchen window and removed the two stamp albums from a bedroom closet, leaving other valuables behind.

The committee Chairman Larry, Bowman had told the council there would be no major changes in the tentative draft, even after the hearings.

The committee's controversial draft of the City Charter called for a revision of the city's government set-up, giving the city manager more power and relegating the council to the position of a purely policy-making body.
